

The airwaves belong to the people....THE AIRWAVES BELONG TO THE PEOPLE...Exactly what part of this do you not understand, Mr. Powell? Your quote that the marketplace is your religion may be fine, but for someone in your position, it would appear that you and your decisions are for sale to the highest bidder. This is unacceptable. America's diversity is her STRENGTH, and you would destroy this essential attribute for your ideas of pure capitalism, and obviously some type of political windfall, it would seem. SHAME ON YOU! Democracy is all ABOUT diversity: MANY VOICES. Our media MUST reflect this. Pure capitalism destroys democracy, and your oligarchic views, penchant for secrecy on this matter, and rush to kow-tow to Mega-Media Corporations sniffs heavily of political shennigans of the highest order. That this (secret) decision June 2 would irrevocably alter forever the landscape of everything we see, hear or communicate, especially on the internet, for you to pompously declare it unfit of further examination by the American public is a travesty bordering on treason. You, sir, are patently unfit for the office that you have been entrusted to, should you proceed with
